The festivities kick off at 11AM, with local craft, food and beverage vendors offering delicious treats and collectables, with a mix of great music and patriotic tunes playing in the background. And the popular dunk-tank is returning this year.

The highlight of the event, the 4th of July Parade, will start at 1 PM. Emcees, Heather Hatton, PR Director for Chinook Winds Casino and Roger Robertson, of KBCH Radio fame and The Double-R Show podcast, will be announcing details of the parade from our main stage.

Live music, featuring local greats - Sitka, starts immediately after the parade ends, around 2PM, and continues to 4PM, when the event ends. The band calls it Jazzy, Trippy, Folkadelic Rock that's Fun!
